

Delaware Burn Camp Code of Conduct

Expected behavior:

RESPECT- Must be given to all that attend the Camp at all times
Be kind to others
Cooperate and participate in activities
Clothing will fit appropriately to assure safety and well-being of the campers
Follow all rules and reasonable directions from Camp staff

Behavior that is discouraged:

Arguments
Refusal to participate
Lateness

Misconduct that will cause removal from Camp:

Fighting
Foul or abusive language
Repeated disrespect for staff or other campers
Stealing
Vandalism
Repeated disruptive behavior

Any behavior considered inappropriate by the Burn Camp staff could result in removal from the Camp. The child's parent/guardian will be responsible for responding to the camp and removing the child from the premises.

A "Time Out" area will be designated by the staff to be used as a type of "deterrent" discipline. This will be initiated with the understanding that continued bad behavior could result in being dismissed from camp.

I understand and will abide by the rules and policies concerning requirements, conduct, expected behavior and discipline at the Burn Camp.
